DEAR MADAM PRESIDENT:

THE DAVAO ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS (DACS) AND THE COORDINATING COUNCIL OF PRIVATE EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATIONS IN REGION XI (COCOPEA-XI), REPRESENTING ONE HUNDRED (100) SCHOOLS, EARNESTLY APPEAL TO YOU TO RETAIN THE SY 2006-2007 GUIDELINES OF THE EDUCATIONAL SERVICE CONTRACTING PROGRAM (ESC) FOR THE BENEFIT OF 430,000 FAMILIES OF HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS NATIONWIDE WHO ARE DISTRESSED AND DEEPLY DISAPPOINTED WITH THE NEW GUIDELINES WITH CERTAIN PROVISIONS SUCH AS:

- LIMITING TO 40 ESC FRESHMEN GRANTEES PER PARTICIPATING SCHOOL

- DISQUALIFYING PARTICIPATING SCHOOLS CHARGING MORE THAN P12,000 IN TUITION AND OTHER FEES (MOSTLY AFFECTED ARE ACCREDITED SCHOOLS)

- EXCLUSION OF PRIVATE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL GRADUATES AS GRANTEES OF BOTH ESC AND EVS PROGRAMS

- LIMITING PARTICIPATION TO PRIVATE SCHOOLS THAT ARE CLOSE TO RED OR BLACK CODED PUBLIC HIGH SCHOOLS

THESE CONDITIONS DO NOT ONLY DISCRIMINATE AGAINST PRIVATE SCHOOL STUDENTS COMING FROM INDIGENT FAMILIES BUT ALSO CAUSE THE EVENTUAL CLOSURE OF 1,970 SMALL PARTICIPATING PRIVATE SCHOOLS ACROSS THE COUNTRY.

WE TRUST AND THANK YOU, MADAM PRESIDENT, FOR MAKING QUALITY EDUCATION FOR THE POOR ONE OF YOUR URGENT PRIORITIES. WE FULLY SUPPORT YOUR THRUST AND WE BELIEVE THAT THE RETENTION OF THE PREVIOUS GUIDELINES OF THE EDUCATIONAL SERVICE CONTRACTING PROGRAM SIDE BY SIDE WITH THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE EDUCATIONAL VOUCHER SYSTEM IS THE MOST EFFICIENT, MOST EQUITABLE, COST EFFECTIVE MEANS TO ACHIEVE THIS.

Palay, corn output up in 2007

By Amy R. Remo

THE PALAY AND corn sectors are expected to exceed last year's production this year despite adverse weather conditions, according to the Bureau of Agricultural Statistics.

BAS said palay production for the first half of the year may reach 6.66 million metric tons, 2.2 percent higher than last year's production of 6.54 million metric tons.

Corn production, meanwhile, is seen to reach 2.73 million metric tons, up 5 percent from 2.6 million metric tons last year.

This despite rains and cold weather in January followed by a dry spell which started in February which adversely affected palay and corn production.

The government is counting on the planting of corn and palay in more areas to boost production this year.

Agriculture Secretary Arthur C. Yap also said in an earlier briefing that the DA would strive to put in place the infrastructure

ALTHOUGH THERE ARE countless, even infinite, makeup products in the local market, Red Earth president Stephan Borchert is very optimistic about the brand's success in the Philippines. Founded in Australia in 1989, previously sold in Cinderella but now available in Beauty Bar outlets, Red Earth sales in the last two weeks since it reopened in Manila have been, as Borchert puts it, quite well.

HerBench boardies can compete in the surf capitals of the world

Mabuhay!

Jenni Epperson

IF THOSE ITSY BITSY BIKINI ensembles take the place of basic fitted tees in the season of the eternal summer, then what would take the place of blue jeans?

Bring out the boardies!

In fact, board shorts are pretty much the uniform in the sunshine-filled surf capitals of Sydney and the Gold Coast. Whether you're walking down the shoreline or partying up a storm in dance clubs, the young, vibrant and ultra laid-back Aussies just love their boardies. It's the best thing to don for summer tripping, hiking, island-hopping, banana boat riding or just about any activity under the sun (flirting with a spiked fruit shake included).

Back in our shores, Pinoys can channel their own cool beach bum vibe without looking like a slacker surfer in too-loose boardies call for the guys. HerBench has a colorful array of board shorts that highlight their pin-cute/sexy.

The line features cool colors inspired by Caribbean and tropical flowers, and cut short to the popular silhouette.

HerBench also has washed and distressed khaki shorts made of lightweight cotton fabrics to provide the ultimate comfort for those strenuous but fun summer activities.

So, girls, don't get caught in a fashion flat-line as you hike up the mountains or soak up the sights in summer's exciting destinations.

From city to beach to the peaks, you'll never get bored or fall short with these boardilicious board shorts.

NOTED fashion photographer Nigel Barker will be at the Alabang Town Center Activity Center today at 6 p.m.

PA BARKER

NOTED FASHION PHOTOGrapher and "America's Next Top Model's" resident hottie Nigel Barker is in town to share decades' worth of fashion experience and expertise with stylish Filipinos who are more than eager to hear what he has to say. This former model turned photographer breaks stereotypes of "Zoolander" models, or male models who have nothing between their heads.

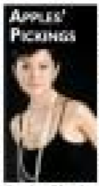

Just so, he has quite a lot to share, starting with the basics that it takes more than long legs and good skin to break into an ultra-competitive, potentially cutthroat industry.

"It's like any job. If you want to be good at it, practice it. Learn the trade. Learn who the photographers are, look at magazines, practice your walk. Be smart about it," says Barker.

He also believes that smart counts, not just "book smarts," is a must for potentially successful models. He says: "As a model, you will be dealing with people, on the streets, going to castings, being ...

BORACAY BOUND 6 IS summer's ultimate party. For six years now, Boracay Bound's creator, Eventscape's Stephen Ko, constantly redefines the summer beach experience with this one-of-a-kind event.

This year's affair had beach party globe to her pursuit of the latest Motorola handset, the Motorola V8 Mass, blending cutting-edge design and the power of high speed connectivity. This phone offers a revolutionary High-Speed Downlink Packet Access (HSDPA) and Enhanced Data for Global Evolution (EDGE), which perfectly complements the new innovation from Globe, the Globe 3G with HSDPA.

The Moto-Globe Challenge station was the first hurdle for the participants, where they had to take a wild, crazy photo using the new Motorola V8 Mass and upload it to the Boracay Bound 6 Multiply site. Next stop was the Moto-Globe Content Station where showcases of Motorola handsets under Globe plans were presented.

Another activity had participants visiting a website and answering questions to be able to continue to the next round, where they could claim prizes in the Prize Claim Station such as shirts, pens, Globe premium items and lunchkits.

Folded & Hung provided the male with a catwalk show offering its most alluring swimwear collection to date. The Tahitian malibus, board shorts and cover ups came in earth-toned suits adorned with big bangles and big straw hats.

Boracay Bound 6 was presented by Globe and Motorola, co-presented by Fanaptic Star, Schick, Jewel, the official airlines of Boracay Bound 6; and The Tides, the official residences of Boracay Bound 6; also with Jansport, Zero, Folded & Hung, Boracay Beach Club, Embassy, GMA Pilot, Havaianas, Beach Hut, Ibiza, Mongkok, Cytox and Hawaiian Sea Burger.
